Union Hospital Auxiliary Reaches $4 Million in Donations

The Union Hospital Auxiliary has come a long way from conducting door-to-door campaigns asking for $1 from each household nearly 70 years ago to how it supports the hospital now.

On April 17, the all-volunteer Auxiliary presented its largest-ever annual donation of $253,147 to hospital officials, bringing its all-time donation total to Union Hospital to exactly $4 million since its organization in 1949.

Fund-raising events conducted by the Auxiliary over the course of the past year generate the amount donated annually to the hospital. The gift was made during the Auxiliary's annual luncheon meeting attended by Auxiliary members, hospital officials and public officials in the Monarch Center at Dover.

Proclamations and letters of congratulations highlighting the Auxiliary's efforts and noting the $4-million donation mark were presented during the meeting by Jennifer Kiko, field representative for the office of U.S. Rep. Bob Gibbs, and Ashley Karlen, field representative for the office of U.S. Rep. Bill Johnson. Other congratulations letters were sent to the Auxiliary by U.S. Sen. Sherrod Brown, U.S. Sen. Rob Portman, State Sen. Jay Hottinger and State Rep. Al Landis.

The annual gift to the hospital was presented to Bruce James by Susan Mosher, Auxiliary President, and Lorrie Hawk, Auxiliary treasurer, along with the past presidents of the Auxiliary who were in attendance. Mosher said that the $253,147 donation has been designated for the purchase of a wide variety of patient care equipment and improvements to the hospital facility.

The Auxiliary conducts numerous fund-raising events held annually including the Chocolate Love A'fair, Tea in the Garden, Hanging Basket Sale, Rummage Sale, Warther's Christmas Tree Festival, Poinsettia Sale and Vera Bradley Bingo, along with other projects. The Auxiliary also operates the Corner Shop gift shop located just inside the hospital's main entrance.

The UH Auxiliary always welcomes new members and ideas for fund-raising events and programs. For more information contact any Auxiliary member or call Holly Ripple in the hospital's Community Relations Department at (330) 364-0884 or via e-mail at hollyr@unionhospital.org.
